Chairman Kalamazoo Tuberculosis Remedy
O. (Lidd.): Member of British Tuberculosis Congress: Member National Association for the Prevention of Consumption.
Consumptives need not worry about their future any more, as the leng-looked-for cure for consumption has at last been found. To satisfy yourself of this you have only to write for free trial troment to the Kalamazoo Tuberculosis Remedy Co. (Lidd.), 1330 Main St., Kalamazoo, Mich., of which the chairman is Mr. O. K.
Buckhout, a noted member of the British Tuberculosis Congress and also of the National Association for the Prevention of Consumption, composed of world-famous men who have made consumption—its cure and prevention—a life study. This cure is something mitrely new and is called "Antidotum Tuberculose." or the Copper Cure, and is the only discovery known that kills all tuberculosis germs which cause consumption, as unless this is done the disease cannot be cured.

You can tell if you have consumption by the coughing and hawking, by continually spitting, especially in the morning when you raise yellow and black matter, by bleeding from the lungs, night sweats, flat chest, fever, weak voice, peculiar flushed complexion, pain in chest, wasting away of the flesh, etc. Find out how the Copper Cure kills the germs, then builds up the lungs, strengthens the heart, puts flesh on the body and muscles on the bones until the consumption is all gone and you are again a strong, healthy, robust man or woman.

Don't doubt this, for the very same discovery benefited A. H. Dingley, a son of Congressman Dingley of Dingley Tariff Bill fame, who after going West and South for relief was benefited by "Antidotum Tuberculose" after all else had failed.

So don't give up hope and don't spend your money in travel. Attend to it right

So don't give up hope and don't spend your money in travel. Attend to it right away, for consumption spreads to other members of the family. If you have consumption or fear you are predisposed to it, write to-night to the Kalamazoo Tuberculosis Remedy Co. (Ltd.), 1330 Main St. Kalamazoo, Mich., for the FREE Trial Treatment and the plain and comprehensive literature which they will gladly send you, all charges prepaid. Remember the trial treatment is absolutely FREE.

THE VALUE OF CHARCOAL.

Few Paople Know How Useful It is in Preserving Health and Seasty.

Nearly everybody knows that charcon is the safest and most efficient disinfectant and puriner in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose.

Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorts the gases and im-purities always present in the rtomach and intestines and carries them out of the system.

Charcoa: sweetens the breath after smoking drinking or after eating onlons and other odorous vegetables.

Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently after artherite.

the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently sufe cathartic.

It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the polson of catarrh.

All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best charcoal and the most for the money is in Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered Willow charcoal, and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form, or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey.

The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much-improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter hreath and purer blood, and the beauty of it is that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit.

A Bunalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stuart's Absorbent Lozenges to all patients.

A Buffalo physician in speaking of the benefits of charcoal says: "I advise Stust's Absorbent Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bow-els, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat; I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five conts a box at drug stores, and, although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Siuart's Absorbent Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets."

LAST WORD RECEIVED FROM ZIEGLER ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

Miss Anna Taffel Gets Letter From Her Brother, Who Was the Youngest Member of Party-She Believes He Will Come Successfully Out of Perils That Confront Him.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.-In a letter written the day before the Ziegler expedition in search of the North Pole, left Archangel, Russia, and disappeared in the ley waters of the Arctic Zone, Robert R. Taffel, youngest member of the exploring party, tells an interesting story of its hopes and plans. The letter was recelved by the young man's sister, Miss Anna Taffel, of 4802 Springfield avenue. Taffel is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, class of 1896, and it was upon his own urgent application that he was enrolled for the dash to find the northern terminus of the earth's axis.

To-morrow we shall leave the civilized world catracised from all numan habitations. You will not hear from me again until December, 1904—possibly not then, or ever. We will winter in Franz Josef Land until the lee is frozen solid, which will be about February 15. Then we will go over the lee to the North Fole and fame.

From now until February we will be bustly engaged in getting the expedition ready for the limit dash. Each day will find us further from any living soil save the Esquimaux.

I am delighted with my venture and never felt better nor more encurased in my life. Every one of us is will. We atopped at Verdi, in Norway, to take abourd thirty ponies and 250 dogs. These animals will be untilized to take us to the Fole.

While going through the Barents Sea we crossed the Arctic Cirole. The crew initiated me by tying a rone around my body and throwing me, clothing and all, overboard. We have perpetual daylight. The weather is balmy. Graculally it will get colder and in a short time winter will be with us in earnest. The aurora borealls is already visible.

Professor Long and a few others, including myself, are the only ones who will go to the estracised from all numan habitations. You

The rest of the party will remain or Miss Taffel was delighted over her brother's letter, and is firm in the faith that he will come successfully out of the

NATIVE REFORMERS PLAN MODERNIZATION OF CHINA.

Society of Five Million Mongolians Hope to Limit Power of the Dowager Empress and Stay Invasion of European Powers.

The question as to the future of China is, perhaps, one of the most debated problems of the moment. With the complex state of affairs in that tradition-bound realm the world at large is looking on in terestingly and asking, "What of the out-

It is well known how desperately China is holding out against Occidentalism and its civilizing influences.

Already the march of progress has reached China's wall of exclusiveness and is facing its most formidable enemies, the Dowager Empress and her coterie of native Princes.

Strongest among all wedging reform influences of the present day is that of Bo Waung Wooe, or, as the organization is better known, the Chinese Empire Reform

This association was founded some five years ago, and, notwithstanding the fact that it has upward of 5,000,000 members, its work has been so quietly and peacefully conducted that it is little known.

The most remarkable feature of the movement at the present time is that it has brought forward a Chinese Joan of Arc. This in itself is an indication of the modernizing influences that are slowly working in the Empire, where the activities of women are confined to the house-

Miss Kwang arrived at Tacoma two weeks ago with the intention of thoroughly organizing the Puget Sound Chinese. She is the first woman of her race to take to the lecture platform, and though only 18, she has traveled all over the world lecturing on reforms.

She has already established twelve lodges of the Woman's Chinese Reform Association, three of them being in Cana-and stirs to action the members of Bc Waung Wooe throughout the world. These are the weapons by which the Chinese Empire Reform Association is so rapidly and effectively working its wedge into semibarbaric China.

Education, the deadliest foe to superstition, ignorance and exclusiveness. The education of modern times, the only factor that will strengthen a nation and bring it into proper touch with the outside world.

Education not only in literature, science and the arts, but that which comes from sturdy methods of commerce, transportation, mechanism and agriculture.

Education of all kinds that will inspire lofty ideals and broaden the minds of that people whom Occidentals are prone to look upon as a peculiar race, but who in reality are as capable of the highest achievements as any nation on the globe.

upon as a peculiar race, but who in reality are as capable of the highest achievements as any nation on the globe.

Unity, that China shall not be divided. The Chinese love their country and are fully as loyal and patriotic as any other people. Bo Waung Wooc swears as a man to give their lives if necessary rather than see China dismembered.

Equality, that all may share and share alike in the beneits of civilization.

That every man, woman and ohild in China shall be equal; that there will be no more exclusion acts; that Empress-Dowagerism will cease to exist and that China may become a nation among nations.

This is the hope of Bo Waung Wooc, and it has a hard struggle before it; but its work is going on steadily and persistently. As to the methods of the Chinese Empire Reform Association, none could be more peaceable. It has no plans for bloody warfare; no secret society for extermination, no upsetting of dynasties, no cutting off of heads and no disturbing revolutions.

It is wholly through an educational the cause of China, that vast kingdom which contains more than one-third of the inhabitants of the globe.

Bo Waung Wooe has its leader. It has branches in every city of the world. Its members are from the best classes.

Many of the $5,000 Chinese resident in the United States are members, but as Chinese are to be found in but comparatively small numbers outside their native land, it must be surmised that the majority of adherents to the association are resident in China.

New York City has a branch section of Bo Waung Wooe, with an approximate membership of 1,200. This is about oneninth of the entire Chinese population of the city.

Only a few weeks ago officers of this section gave a dinner at Delmonico's in honor of five Chinese gentiemen who are prime movers in the cause. These guests were: Waung Why Gee of Japan, Yip Wing of Vancouver, British Columbia; Lian, Chee Cheeso and Chee Ses Kin of Canton, China, and Bow Chee of Australia. Eminent educators and several of the highest city officials were invited to meet them and learn of the efforts and aspiration of the Chinese Reform Association.

mantic in the extreme. Bo Waung Woos. literally translated, means, "Protect the Emperor Association."

The association was founded because of the plaintive appeal of his Royal Highness, Quorng Soo-e, when he sent that pathetic message. "Save me! I am in danger." to Kwang Yow Why, his friend and counselor in educational matters.

Kwang Yow Why, a Chinaman of the upper class, highly educated and of progressive tendencies, saw the light of civilization as Li Hung Chang and a few other Chinamen living in advance of their country have seen it shining upon and beautifying nations.

Fully aware of obstacles that lay in the path of any one attempting to introduce modern innovations, but fully aroused to the deplorable condition of his country, Kwang Yow Why determined upon plens that would at least kinds the spark of desire for improvement.

This ambitious Chinaman conceived the idea of approaching the Emperor on the subject. The Dowager Empress was a personage quite beyond approach, as almost any wise Chinaman would admit, when it came to talking over matters of reform.

Day after day the story of civilisation reform.

Day after day the story of civilisation was poured into the royal ears. Quorng Soo-e became intensely interested, and finally a thorough convert.

To enlighten his subjects became a matter of the most profound consideration to the young ruler, and a desire to formulate plans for their betterment was quick and sincere.

instituted a constitutional government, with a Senate and House of Representatives.

But alas! for such ambitions for China with the Dowager Empress behind the throne, clinging with tenacious grip characteristic of that indomitable will that has sustained her in a struggle for power unnaralleled in the world's history!

Like a neteoric flash was this bright dream of reform for the Emperor and the sage that instigated it. Interviews between Quorng Soo-e and Kwang Yow Why were suddenly terminated. The Chinese reformer was compelled to five for his life. Given warning by friends at court, he left the capital, assisted in his escape by a British gunboat that took him to Hong-Kong.

It was while there, waiting te embark for Australia, that the message reached him from the Emperor of China: "Save me! I am in danger!"

These are the principal advocates of Chinese reform and their methods of reformation.

It is for members of Bo Waung Wooe that torture and death await. They may or may not be misguided, but their intentions are humane and nonrevolutionary, and whatever the outcome of the present alarming conditions, Bo Waung Woos has turned the tide of civilization toward its native land, and no power on earth will be able to stop it.

RICH VAGRANT IS SAVED BY HIS G. A. R. BUTTON.

Temperarily Demented Veteral Spends Two Days at the House of Correction.

REPUBLIO SPECIAL

Philadelphia, Sept. 5.-After having spent two days as a vagrant in the House of Correction among the oucasts of so-clety, Charles S. Crosland, a veteran of the Civil War, and a man of wealth, was rescued by relatives and taken to his home, at No. 1118 Arctic avenue, Atlantic Crosland is about @ years old, and is said by the detectives to be slightly demented at times.

He is the owner of numerous properties of different kinds in Atlantic City and Pottsville, Pa., and is prominently known in both cities. In both cities.

The incarceration of the old man as a vagrant was due to his efforts to reach Pottsville to look after some of his property.

erty.

He had spoken to his wife about making the trip, but the detectives say that on account of his condition she objected to his doing it, and he mysteriously disconnected. The police of Atlantic City searched for him for three days, and then Mrs. Crosland came to this city and requested the aid of Detective Allmendinger to find her

His mental condition was explained to the detective, and he caused inquiry to be made for the old man at all the hospitals. A description of him, in which was noted the fact that he wore a G. A. R. button, was sent to all the police stations. Then an old man, dirty and thred out from tramping, was found wandering in Fairmount Park.

His condition was such that he could not explain his identity or the location of his home, and he was arraigned before Magistrate O'Brien as a vagrant.

The Magistrate deemed the House of Correction the best place for the old man, and he was committed to that institution for three months.

He was taken to the Twenty-third and Brown Streets Police Station before the trip to the Correction was made, and as the patrol in which he was seated was leaving the station house Sergeant Maple noticed the G. A. R. button on the lapel of the old man's coat.

The Sergeant immediately recalled the description sent out from police headquarters, in which such a button was mentioned, and reported the matter to Detective Allmendinger.

The latter made an investigation, and was shocked to find that Crosland and the supposed vagrant were the same person. The old man was overjoyed when he was released, and with his relatives immediately took a train for his home. BOYS ACCUSED OF BURNING YOUNG MURPHY NOT HELD.

Police Credit Their Stories, Notwithstanding Their Identification by Lad Who Was Victim of Cruel

Nine boys, two of whom were identified by Johnnie Murphy, the 6-year-old son of Mrs. Katle Murphy of No. 4439 Labadie avenue, as the ones at whose hands he was seriously burned on July 23, were taken to the Tenth District Police Station yesterday morning, and, after con-vincing the police that there was a mis-take in their identity, were discharged. Mrs. Murphy went to Assistant Prose-cating Attorney Dalton Friday and gave him the names of two boys who, she said, had burned her boy. Mrs. Murphy had never given the police any names. The names given to the Prosecuting At-torney were secured by the police, and yesterday morning the boys were taken to the police station. They also took seven other boys who live in the neighborhood.

The two boys who Mrs. Murphy said tortured her boy were taken to the Murphy home. Johnnie Murphy identified one as the boy who had gathered the paper from the vacant lot and also who struck from the vacant lot and also who struck the match.

The other boy, he says, put the paper under the bib of his overalls and placed the lighted match to it.

At the police station the boys were questioned separately and collectively by Captain Thomas, Bergeant McNamara and Special officers Williams and Lawier.

They answered all questions in a straightforward manner and the officers came to the conclusion that none of them had anything to do with the accident
